Summer Holiday (a girl)

This is about my summer holiday. First I travelled to xxx (a city) in xxx (a country), for one week. I travelled with my mom, dad and my hamster. But then we found out that we couldn't take the hamster with us to Denmark. But fortunately we found a nice girl who worked in the animal hospital. She offered to take care of my hamster for one week, while we were in Denmark. We travelled with car and boat to Denmark. We rented a holiday house in Denmark. It was a nice house. After one or two days we drove to a beautiful beach. It was very windy. It is not mountains in Denmark so the wind just blew everywhere. Then we went to Legoland. It was so incredible! Many LEGO houses So cool! And a big, cool roller coaster. It rained that day so I didn't do so much. Then we went to Odense zoo. It was fun but the animals had a little space to walk and play! And after a while we travelled to Germany. Just for a short visit. Then at the last day in Denmark we went to see the famous Moonfish. Then we travelled back to Bergen.

My Christmas wasn't that special last year. Except from the fact that my grandmother and my handicapped aunt celebrated the Christmas with me and my family. On the 23 of December it was time to decorate the Christmas tree. First we were a bit concerned because the Christmas star on top of the tree made huge marks on the ceiling. But my dad solved the problem by cutting two or three cm of the top of the tree. On Christmas morning we ate breakfast and prepared for church. We were in the church for about 45 minutes. When we got home we ate ribs of lamb and mashed Swedish turnips and potatoes. Every year I get a little pissed off because parents use as long time as they can to eat. After the dinner we opened our presents and had a wonderful evening.
