

EOL
RE
BR
UD
TE
CU
RE

PEOPLE

STRUCTURE

Are you involving parents?

Are you working within a team? How?

Are you using cross subject approaches?

Are international mobility and intercultural learning valued at your school?

On what cultural content are you working with your students?

What is the value of language learning and teaching at your school?

What educational values and aims of the curricula are you working on?

Do you know the plurilingual repertoires of your learners?

Do you have any experience of mobility abroad?

Are all stakeholders aware of language issues?

What are your linguistic, intercultural, educational aims?

Have you already tested blended learning or flipped classrooms?

What digital equipment is there in your school? What kind of digital resources are available to the learners?

Who are your partners & networks?

Do you cooperate with local institutions (libraries, museums, cultural centres, etc.)?

What languages are on offer at your school?

How can exposure to languages be reinforced?

How can classrooms be designed in order to support communication?

How do you combine individual lessons, modules and projects?