Elements of content: 1. Beginning and finishing the conversation 2. Invitation 3. Appointment 4. Food preferences 5. Presence of dog	1 part adequately performed	2-3 parts adequately performed	4 parts adequately performed	All parts adequately performed	x 2
Size/mastery sign vocabulary	Limited size of sign vocabulary, which leads to incomplete performance. Not always clear what is meant.	Shows enough signs to handle the situation. Little variation in used signs, restricted to chunks / fixed phrases	Simple sign vocabulary, but sufficient for the situation. Short sentences, but they form a logical unity.	Clear and sufficient for the situation, possibly via paraphrases. Chunks, but also creative language use and sometimes longer sentences.
Grammatical correctness	Systematic and frequent mistakes in basic grammar. Use of separate signs, no conjugations	Systematic mistakes in the basic grammar, that do not really interfere with communication	Fairly correct use of simple constructions, but elementary mistakes do occur occasionally.	Fairly correct use of conjugations. Correct sign order. No mistakes that interfere with communication.
Interaction (degree and ease of shared conversation); Fluency and articulation	Understands what is being signed. Reactions are often very short; sometime encouragement is needed to go on; wrong articulation of some signs can interfere with communication.	Often reacts adequately; shows little initiative to continue the conversation. Occasional interfering mistakes in articulation.	Reacts adequately. Is clear and easy to follow, even though articulation might be slow and there is a clear accent.	Has a pro-active attitude. Is clear and easy to follow, fairly natural articulation.
