

Silesia

Examples of good practices

Project title:	Slavic Network
Project duration:	2004-2006
Regions involved:	Poland, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Slovenia, Bulgaria, Germany
Actors involved:	University of Silesia in Katowice (Poland), Univerzita Palackeho (Czech Republic), Univerzita Komenskeho (Slovakia), Sophia's University, St. Kliment Ochridsky (Bulgaria), Martin Luther Universität (Germany)
Main objective(s):	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Encouraging people from Slavic countries and other European countries to get to know Slavic languages (Polish, Czech, Slovak, Slovenian, Bulgarian).• Presentation of similarities and differences between various Slavic languages and cultures.
Outputs:	Encouraging the learning of other Slavic languages with similarities to one's own instead of promoting the universality of English.
Further information:	Website with examples: http://www.slavic.network.us.edu.pl/main.php