European Centre for Modern Languages of the Council of Europe

LANGUAGE EDUCATION AT THE HEART OF DEMOCRACY

Call for project proposals for the programme 2024-2027

Are you currently active in the field of language education as a teacher, teacher educator, inspector, researcher and/or curriculum or materials writer?

If so, and you live and work in an ECML member state, then this Call for project proposals from the European Centre for Modern Languages of the Council of Europe (ECML) is for you!

Are you in a position to identify examples of inspiring practice or relevant research findings?

Do you have ideas for addressing any of these challenges?

democracy

global challenges

st century ski

formative assessment

communities of practice communities of practice motivation home languages

ve assessment

blended learning

Could it be that you are already

working on one of these topics?

diverse classrooms

motivation

blended learning global challenges

blended learning

21st century skills

learner autonomy

democracy refugees

21st century skills

global challenges

diverse classrooms

artificial intelligence

learner autonomy

diverse classrooms

12 June 2023, 15:00 CET

Webinar for potential proposal writers new to the ECML

- how ECML projects are organised
- what kind of project outputs are envisaged
- what makes a successful project proposal
- where to find relevant Council of Europe resources and how to build on these
- how to find team members

The recording will be available on the Call website immediately afterwards.

This Call is the result of a process of dialogue and negotiation. It outlines a range of current priorities in language education, identified by the ECML's 35 member states. These priorities will be the focus of the next ECML programme 2024-2027 entitled "Language education at the heart of democracy".

