

A Pluriliteracies Approach to Teaching for Learning

Monday 13 & Tuesday 14 March 2017 - Programme
Room 5, Marino Institute of Education, Griffith Avenue, Dublin 9
Experts: Professor Do Coyle, Dunja Chamberlain and Frederic Taveau

Monday 13 March

WORKSHOP 1: Laying the Foundations

- 10.30 CLIL Models, Methods and Myths (Do)
- Introductions to the team, the workshops and ECML
 - A Vision for Deep Learning
 - Revisiting the 4Cs Framework
 - Language, languages, literacies and learning

- 11.45 Launching CLIL, a Whole School Approach (Fred & Dunja)
- Student and Teacher anxieties
 - Feedback from students

12.30 Lunch in canteen (reserved tables)

WORKSHOP 2: Language, Literacies and Learning

13.30 Language OF Learning (Fred & Dunja)

14.45 Thinking, Intercultural Learning and Literacies (Do)

16.30 Raising and Discussing Issues (All)

17.00 Private bus to group dinner at The Green Hen Restaurant, 33 Exchequer St, Dublin 2 (www.thegreenhen.ie)

Tuesday 14 March

WORKSHOP 3: Pluriliteracies Approach for Deep Learning

10.00 Pluriliteracies – models and 3-D designs (Do)

11.15 Language FOR Learning (Fred & Dunja)

12.30 Lunch in canteen (reserved tables)

13.30 Language THROUGH learning/ How to evaluate L2 in subject classes (Fred & Dunja)

14.30 Coffee break

- 15.00 Principles and Practices (All)
- Q&A
 - Setting up your own vision of Pluriliteracies
 - What will you be taking back?
 - Feedback

www.ecml.at/pluriliteracies