1. Records description

121 documents (abstracts, agendas, charts, lists, notes, overviews, papers, programmes, reports, summaries and treaties) relate to the Council of Europe activities carried out in the field of modern languages between 1989 and 1991 in particular by the Council for Cultural Co-operation, the Directorate of Education, Culture and Sport and the Secretariat of the Council of Europe.

The papers focus on:

- language learning/teaching methodologies and their implications for in-service teacher training
- language learning objectives for multilingual and multicultural Europe
- modern language learning in vocationally oriented education
- the use of mass media and new technologies
- bilingual education and the role of educational visits and exchanges
- curriculum development for modern languages in upper secondary, general, technical and vocational education
- learning to learn languages: learner strategies and learner autonomy
- transparency and coherence in language learning in Europe
- European Language Portfolio
- modern languages projects of the Council of Europe
- languages for work and life
- European charter for regional or minority languages

The records also include information about Resolution No.1 on the European dimension of Education: teaching and curriculum content, Resolution No. 2 on the work of the Council of Europe for Cultural Cooperation of the Council of Europe, Resolution No. 3 on emergency measures on behalf of Albania and the drafting of the European charter for regional or minority languages.
